JEFF BOYER – Jeff Boyer is an internationally acclaimed pioneer of highly interactive community based bubble performance. A variety artist with over 25 years of entertainment experience, specializing in inclusion and diversity performance he seamlessly engages audiences beyond language, cultural, age, and ability barriers. His dynamic style galvanizes communities. Jeff began creating bubble shows in 2005. His experience with school groups led him to raise audience participation to a new level. The evolution of this unique inclusiveness and interactive art separates Bubble Trouble from other bubble shows, thrills audiences and builds lasting community among performing arts center's patrons.

Be a part of this uniquely interactive show where the audience participates in the creation of art. Jeff engages, delights and appeals to diverse crowds. His shows are totally customize-able for STEM/STEAM school directed performances, Sensory Friendly Theater, all around fun family theater, and can be done in any language and for all ages.

He launched Jeff Boyer Productions in 1999 wowing audiences internationally with bubbles, science, and comedy ever since.
